Date February 11, 1964

FRANK ROSENTHAL, 8000 West Drive, North Bay Village, Florida, was interviewed just outside the entrance to the Beaux Gardens Apartments. He was advised that he did not have to make any statement, any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was further advised of his right to counsel and the fact that no threats, promises, or inducements would be made during the course of this interview.

ROSENTHAL related that he was just going to dinner with his wife and a friend at the Luau located on the 79th Street Causeway, Miami Beach.

He said he could not understand why the FBI was keeping such close tabs on him as he was not engaged in any illegal activity.

ROSENTHAL was asked if he was bookmaking; his answer was, "No." He was asked if MARTY KANE was bookmaking; his answer was, "No." ROSENTHAL was asked if he and MARTY KANE were bookmaking together; his answer was, "No."

He stated that [redacted] was down from Maryland purely on a winter vacation. He stated that [redacted] was living at the Beaux Gardens Apartments with [redacted] ROSENTHAL refused to discuss [redacted] business interests in Miami or around the Washington, D.C. - Baltimore area.

ROSENTHAL said that he personally is in very bad shape financially and has not paid the second installment of the fine levied against him in a trial that took place the first part of December, 1963, in Charlotte, North Carolina.

He continued, stating that ALVIN WISEBERG, an employee of Multiple Sports News Service, was ready to crack up because of the interviews conducted by the FBI with him. He continued, stating that if the FBI continues to show an interest in the activities of WISEBERG, he was [redacted]

For information, Frank Rosenthal has recently been convicted of a bribery charge in the state of North Carolina, whereby he "fixed" a basketball game between New York University and West Virginia University, played in Charlotte, North Carolina. Rosenthal is known as an excellent handicapper of sporting events and also an individual who gambles heavily, and has been known to conduct "lay-off" operations.

Miami is interested in obtaining information in reference to the below-mentioned telephone numbers that were called in Montreal, Canada. Any background information that can be developed to link these individuals with Frank Rosenthal and gambling operations, will be helpful in the investigation of this individual:

ROSENTHAL was asked the question, "Does [redacted] receive service from Multiple Sports News Service?" ROSENTHAL's first answer was, "I feel in my best interest I will refuse to answer that question." ROSENTHAL, after a moment's hesitation, stated an emphatic "No" to the question that was asked.

ROSENTHAL further stated that the individual who had been recently with him and also driving his car alone was ANTHONY, also known as Tony, SPILOTRO, who was visiting the Miami area from Chicago, Illinois.

ROSENTHAL continued, stating that he is very bad off financially and is not doing any gambling. He stated the reason for his presence at the Golden Nugget Motel on a daily basis is purely to chat with the "boys" and has nothing to do with any illegal activity or meeting place for illegal operations.

ROSENTHAL said that on May 18, 1964 he had conversed on the telephone with JOSEPH NESLINE who is presently in Washington, D.C. He said that NESLINE told him that his wife was very close to death and probably would not live more than a week's time.
